

Workshop Summary

This one day Workshop covers Inspection & testing, certification on domestic and three phase systems. The Workshop includes both practical & theory sessions.

Who Should Attend

People who have attend either the VRQ Domestic Installer or the 2381 16th Edition training courses.

People wishing to gain a better understanding of the BS7671 Inspection & Testing procedures to increase their practical and theory knowledge.

Those contemplating taking part in the 2391 Test & Inspection 3 day training course.

PLEASE NOTE:

This course alone does not allow you to self certificate your work.

What entry requirements?

The workshop is suitable for electricians or people with little or some knowledge of practical & theory Test & Inspection procedures.

Benefits to You and Your Organisation

- Increased practical skill level
- Increased knowledge of important legislation regarding electrical installations

Workshop Contents

- Requirements of BS7671: 2001 for inspection, testing and certification
- Use of required test instruments
- Installation Inspection
- Installation testing
- Documentation

Follow Up Workshops

EL8 City and Guilds 2391-01: Level 3 Certificate in Inspection, Testing and Certification of Electrical Installations,

Aylesbury Workshop Dates:

12 April 2010
28 June 2010
18 October 2010

Fees: £185 + VAT

(Including Lunch & Refreshments)

'Please note the above Workshop requires minimum attendance numbers'