

One-Day practical workshop covering an overview of the practical aspects of the BS 7671: 2001 requirements for Inspection and Testing of Electrical Installations.

Workshop Summary

This one day Workshop covers inspection, testing and certification on domestic and three phase systems. The Workshop consists of practical work backed with theory where applicable.

Who Should Attend

For delegates who have completed the C&G 2391 – 101 training course that require more practical experience on aspects of Inspection & Testing before attempting the practical assessments.

What entry requirements?

This programme is suitable for electricians or people with a theoretical & practical knowledge of Inspection & Testing

Benefits to You and Your Organisation

- Increased skill level
- Increased practical experience of Inspection & Testing

Workshop Contents

- Requirements of BS7671: 2001 for inspection, testing and certification
- Use of required test instruments
- Installation Inspection
- Installation testing
- Completing Documentation

Follow Up Workshops

EL10 2377 - 002 PAT Testing O Inspection & Testing Of Electrical Equipment .

Aylesbury Workshop Dates:

27 May 2010
22 July 2010
7 October 2010
25 November 2010

Fees: £185 + VAT

(Including Lunch & Refreshments)

(Please note the above Workshop requires minimum attendance numbers'